Last Orders...

As the season trundles down the gently levelling-out slope that has been this season's rollercoaster, the fat lady hasn't yet burst into open song congratulating the league winners as, due to next week's nearly full fixture list, the title has still not been won.

The Princess had no intention of sitting back this week after they stormed the Lion 'A' 10-2. After taking three of the four pairs the Woking outfit continued in style, winning all but one of the remaining points. There were several close calls, with Ian Long coming back from a 2-0 deficit to beat Martin Putt, and John 'Cocktail' Collins winning a tense decider against Darryl Pilgrim. Dave Webb exhibited his class by taking his second MoM, who was followed by Peter Green winning with the same average over Alan Thorpe.

Rhodrons have been in almost unstoppable form this season, and an 8-4 win over last year's champions Walton seems to have put the title just a stone's (or dart's) throw away from the title. After drawing in the pairs, the home side proceeded to win 6 of the 8 singles, notable wins being those of Andy Turnbull, Mark Tiller and Spike over Graham Hollis, Jason Kelly and Richie Blake respectively. Aaron Turner won well over a strong Lionel Sams, whilst John Watson took a point from a scrappy game with Paul Moreton.

The Golden Lion hosted the Fed this week and, after clearing up 4-0 in the pairs, one 4 out of 8 singles to wrap up an 8-4 walloping of the Epsom side. The visitors took the first three singles 3-2, with Mick Eden winning a close fight against Peter Munt, followed by wins for Rob 'Bones' Hall and Martin Byrne over Terry Dersley and Ray Smith. However, the Croydon side kicked back by winning the next four on the spin, including another MoM-performance from Tony Andrews, before Tony Hammond won a close decider over John Skehan at the finish.

The Mets held Park Barn to a 6-6 draw over in Frimley, drawing the pairs and splitting the singles four-apiece. New signing Eddie Simmonds took MoM with an impressive 30.24 average over Robin Hathaway, whilst 'Wayneo' Jeffery was best for the visitors, hitting his highest average of the season.

Walton 'C', the only other team with as many draws as the Metropole, also drew this week in their match with the Freeholders. After drawing the pairs the generally scrappy games went either way, notable exceptions coming from Andy's Nye and Partridge, with Paul Neate taking MoM with another impressive display of darts. At 5-6 down, Doug Turner stole the win from the hosts with a last-gasp win over Dave Martin.

Fairlands just about beat WPAC in an end-of-season lazy game of darts, with MoM going to a clinical display from Robbie Stroud.
