Fixture Week 6

23rd October 2008

"TTO is ace, I try to read it every week - when that fails, I ask someone else to read it to me."

Graham, a Jungle in Borneo

Top Draw

A slightly reduced fixture list this week failed to yield any spectacular results but will undoubtedly surprise many. Only two teams went home with wins this week as three draws in five games presented themselves.

The Princess's trip to the Golden Lion was put on hold on the day of former Surrey and England player Gene Raymond's funeral. Over at the Freeholders, a minutes silence was held as a mark of respect before the commencement of the match. Walton WMC pulled off a win to turn things around from last week, but after a couple of flat write-ups in TTO it was the home side that came up smelling of roses (albeit a £2.99 Tesco variety).

The five points were well-earned, particularly from MoM Andy Nye, John Gray and Dave Wye, and the Freeholders will be disappointed not to take more away from an off-colour Walton side. Aaron Turner and John Watson performed best for the visitors.

Flyin' Ryan Hits the Heights, Walton Move Up

WPAC found it hard against an undefeated Walton 'C' side. There were some close games and the score could have ended up quite a bit different but the home side's gears, which are starting to turn this season with a slick efficiency, staved of the attack well. Alex Obalim took an off-form Phil Wathen by surprise, and Dave Horan earned Man-of-the-Match for a close tussle with Carl Ramsey.

On to this week's neither-winners-nor-losers, and first up is Park Barn. They hosted the Lion 'A' in which they stormed to a 6-6 draw. Pick of the bunch was Ryan Hitchens, who rode in buoyed by his success in Sunday's youth county game to notch up a fantastic 31.31 MoM-winning victory over Surrey stalwart Keith Benson. Robin Hathaway and Chris Gallagher put on good winning performances, whilst Steve Lovett was best for the visitors.

Rhodrons locked horns with the Metropole and after their evening-long tangle neither side felt inclined to come away with a victory. Alan Yates and Gary Eastwood were on-form for the Frimley side, with Neville Wright just losing out in a tight match with Ronnie Godbeer. Lionel Sams put on another impressive performance to take MoM with a 31.49 average.

Last on the cards were Salfords, who last week achieved an 8-4 win over holders Walton, playing against a Fairlands team who received an 11-1 bashing from the same side only a few weeks ago. The visitors rose to the occasion well to leave with a draw, Mark Budd (aluminium-reinforced) and Adrian Ridgers performing well, Dave Askew and MoM Ben Burton putting on quality displays for the home side.

REGISTRATION FORMS

It is important that you send player registration forms to the League Secretary as soon as possible after signing a new player. Player registration forms and monies need to be sent to Surrey Darts Organisation and the BDO, and some teams have yet to send in any money whatsoever. I will be sending out lists of players for which I have no registration form, and if I have not received these and any monies by Thursday 30th

October then you could lose tons/game shots and be fined.

COMPETITIONS

A reminder that details of local competitions, including an annual charity competition at Pyford Social Club this Saturday 25th October, can be found on the Message Board on Toe The Oche Online (www.toe-the-oche.co.uk).

Toe The Oche is best printed on high-quality paper, not that recycled rubbish.

Roger Kitching has had a few weeks now to settle in with the Metropole team and, of course, as a result, his new career in farming. TTO caught up with Roger this week to see how things were going. "Things are great thanks for asking TTO, hur hur.", chuckled the gnome-like one, unenthusiastically chomping a barley stem, "It was difficult to get used to it at the start, they said I had to laugh quieter cos I was scaring the sheep ... Baa humbug, I said ... geddit? Baa, like a sheep, har har guffaw! I haven't seen a Ritz biscuit for a while either, nothin' but bran and turnips here, I miss the little cheesy blighters. Still, it's not all bad, they said I had a farmer's accent already, the cheeky sods hur heh heh chortle. But seriously, I do have to be careful around a farm cos of me size, I nearly got run over by a tractor the other day cos the driver couldn't see me past the wheels, and I once accidentally walked under a cow. You know what I got? A pat on the head. HAR HAR HAR, geddit? A pat on the head, like a cow pat yer see? Guffaw, cackle, hur hur hah hah chuckle ... Gawd, me head's gone purple I'm laughing so much, gotta be careful or they'll sell me as a beetroot and that wouldn't be funny, would it? ... actually, it probably would, they might get me pickled, geddit? Pickled, like pissed! HA HA HA HAR HAR HACK COUGH COUGH COUGH SPLUTTER guffaw ..."
